FUNERAL OF THE LATE DR. AFFELCK.

An event which will long be marked in the annals of Bridgeport occurred yesterday afternoon, being the obsequies of the late Dr. John G. Affelck. The high respect in which he was held was evidenced by the large concourse that gathered upon the occasion of his funeral. It was one of the largest assemblies of the character ever witnessed in Bridgeport, and was a fitting tribute to the memory of the deceased. The services were conducted in the family residence by Rev. G. W. Chalfant, of Martin's Ferry, Rev. Samuel Boyd, of Wheeling, and Rev. David Howell, of Bridgeport. Rev. Chalfant, with deep feeling and in earnest words, briefly sketched the life of the departed, and spoke of the uprightness which always marked his career. Rev. Boyd made similar testimony to the excellencies of the deceased. After a prayer by Rev. Howell, the funeral procession was formed and proceeded to the Bridgeport Cemetery, where the remains were laid to rest in the silence of the tomb.

Branch: Adams, Blair, Brown, Cowden, Crowther, Delors, Fisher, Forbes, Goodfellow, Hanson, Horkheimer, Logan, Myles, Pollock, Reeves, Riddle, Ritter, Simpson, Vockler, Wait, Yahn, Mr. President.

The bond of Joseph Forsyth, Wharf-master, in the penal sum of $1,000, with John Armstrong as surety, was approved.

The amendment of the First Branch to the certificate of election of the various city officers, submitted by Stephen Ripley, name as City Sergeant, was concurred in.

The ordinance amending the second section of an ordinance providing for the issue and sale of bonds was read three times and passed. The ordinance merely amended the ordinance of the First Branch, and was concurred in by Messrs. Jones and John G. Hoffman as commissioners, vice M. L. Ott and Samuel Laughlin, resigned.

City Sergeant Ripley reported for confirmation the following names: J. A. Henry, Levi Bogard, James Robertson, Andrew Fleming, Orville Carroll, Scott Liston, George Baum, George Debaugh, John P. St. Myers, Elwood Martin, John Baird.

A petition signed by numerous citizens of the Fifth Ward, asking for the appointment of William Rex as a deputy, was read.

A good deal of filibustering followed this petition, several of the members claiming that they had been consulted in the appointment of the deputies, and that the Sergeant had no right to appoint his deputies for the respective wards without the consent of the citizens residing therein. Mr. Horkheimer moved to refer the petition to the City Council, and the motion was concurred in.

Mr. Myles moved that the Fifth Ward petition be received and Wm. Rex appointed, and Mr. Horkheimer immediately moved to the City Council to the Second Ward. As the motions were not in order, however, they were not entertained.

A letter from Robert Jenkins, declining the appointment of deputy in the Second Ward, was read.

The appointments of the Sergeant were then read and voted upon separately for confirmation.

When the name of Geo. Baum was read Mr. Myles objected, and the year was moved to the City Council, in his confirmation by a vote of 23 to 2, Messrs. Myles and Ritter voting in the negative.

Mr. Forbes objected to the confirmation of Elwood Martin, and after considerable discussion the City Sergeant appeared upon the floor of Council and that he would withdraw Martin's name.

With the exception of Martin, the appointments of the Sergeant were confirmed.

A motion of Mr. Myles, to the effect that the City Sergeant be requested to appoint Mr. Rex, was defeated by a vote of 12 to 11.

The deputies whose appointments were confirmed then appeared and were sworn.

A resolution from the First Branch, instructing the Mayor and City Solicitor to memorialize the Legislature for an amendment to the city charter, extending the time of imprisonment to one year in the city jail, was read.
